

Assessment Tool	Direct/Indirect	Description
Employer Survey	Indirect	Provide the information about the curriculum, programs and course outcomes, on the job- field specific information about the application and value of the skills that the program offers. It helps to determine from employers if the graduates working under them have the necessary job skills and other skills required to work in the industry. Also it helps in the assessment of shortcomings in the programme.
Alumni Survey	Indirect	Collection of wide variety of information about program satisfaction, how well students are prepared for their careers, what types of jobs or graduate degrees majors have gone on to obtain and the skills that are needed to succeed in the job market or in the graduate study, 3 years after the graduation. All the information is collected from the alumni that how well they are able to utilize their learnings from the programme and what other skills are required in the industry that are not imparted during the programme.
Graduate Survey	Indirect	To evaluate the success of the programme in providing students with opportunities to achieve the programme outcomes.
Course Embedded Survey	Indirect	To determine the quality of the course, the various outcomes, that this course tries to satisfy and the level of achievement of these outcomes.
Course Evaluation	Direct	It gives information about what and how students are learning within the classroom environment, using existing information that faculty routinely collect (sessionals / end semester exam performance, assignments etc) Methods of assessing student learning within the classroom environment.
Project and Training Evaluation	Direct	This is a demonstration of the abilities of a student throughout the program